

Don't
face

(Kern note)

Henshaw

Intellect parallel to life (separate from it)

Compare the intellectual process with the life process -

If you remove life from the body ...
(and weigh the body it weighs less)

Davidson

What do you mean by tip?

ans. - "interaction"

Henshaw

One of man's discoveries made by nature was the Carbon-Chain reaction (in building molecules)

m.m. note [anthropomorphism]

Change is one of the most significant elements of the universe

Panglossth

Evolution is determined by something

Henshaw

To Davidson - why do you say that as a natural scientist?

O. answers - then

Henshaw: I'm surprised that you should take that attitude.

An information process which entered in at some early stage -

Why do you say that?
Are you suggesting?
are we trying to decide ...? do you mean ...? might as well agree

Here's a question for Tony Can play with -

Panzetta - I'm worried about

Henshaw - I don't think it's important whether scientists make those decisions or not -

We should sack moral decisions values we commonly hold high - not sure having more freedom is the proper goal defined as "unrestrained behavior"

55 Freedom requires that every one have the information to make decisions in this our life -

Henshaw - There has been an increased complexification of intellect -

We don't think of the [fetus] as having a very high intellect by age 21 the person has considerably higher intellect

1st thing that happens to a Drop-out - is he senses that he is different from the rest of society - Then he becomes belligerent then violent and criminal - The fact ↑

they are brought together

Write Mayor Tate and District Attorney Specker asking that charges against Javits Lynor be dropped. Mr. Lynor was arrested at the Labor Day Rally which ICC co-sponsored in 1964, and he was falsely charged with resisting arrest and inciting to riot. His trial begins Monday April 18th, at City Hall, 4th floor. Attend and observe if you can.

Please bring any completed petitions on the Police Advisory Board.

This is a most important meeting which will include reports on candidates for Congressional, State Senatorial and State Legislative election. ICC campaigns and recommendations for support will be discussed.
